o'clock, and the pastor, Rev. J. J. Haley, will preach a special sermon suitable to the occasion. Mr. LeRoy M. St. John, singing evangelist, will render a solo, and the regular male quartet of the church will also sing.

This church was organized in 1832 by Rev. Thomas Campbell, father of Rev. Alexander Campbell, with a membership of sixty-eight workers, who left the First Baptist Church to form a new denomination in Richmond. Their first house of worship was the old Sycamore Church, so-called, on Eleventh Street, between Broad and Marshall Streets. In 1871 the congregation had outgrown its quarters, and a new church was planned and built at the corner of Seventh and Grace Streets. This building was dedicated in 1873, Rev. John A. Dearborn being pastor.

OF CRITICISM

Kept Marriage to Mrs. Wood Secret Because First Wife Had Just Died.

WOMAN MAKES THIS CLAIM

O'Flaherty and Fulton Have Sensational Papers, But Decline to Discuss Case.

The fact that O'Flaherty & Fulton, ef this city, one of the best known law firms in the State, are counsel for Mrs. Mae Catherine Wood, of Michigan, in her suit for divorce against United States Senator Thomas Collier Platt, adds greatly to local interest in the case. Mr. O'Flaherty was a member of the Virginia Constitutional Convention of 1901-'02, and his partner, Hon. M. J. Fulton, is a member of the Senate of Virginia. Both stand high at the bar. These facts alone give assurance that These facts alone give assurance that the two gentlemen believe they have a good case. They are confident that the two gentlemen believe they have a good case. They are confident that Senator Platt married Mrs. Wood at the Fifth Avenne Hotel in New York, on November 9, 1901, prior to the marriage of the Senator to Mrs. Lillian Janeway, which cogurred in October, 1903. They have what purports to be the marriage certificate, duly signed, It is understood that prior to 1902 a license was not required for a marriage in New York State, but that since that date there has been such a requirement. ber of the concern, was asked as to the story which was telegraphed from Kala story which was telegraphed from Kalamnzoo, Michigun, and in which Mrs. Wood alleges that she had received a letter from her attorney intimating that Senator Platt had offered to make a settlement of the case, provided it is kept out of court, he stated that if Mrs. Wood made such a statement they know nothing of it and cannot discuss it for publication.

In connection with the story as to Abe Hummel's securing a settlement with publication.

In connection with the story as to Abe Hummel's securing a settlement with Senator Platt in Mrs. Wood's behalf, whereby she agreed to surrender certain letters, Mr. O'Flaherty admitted that he had heard of this, but had not seen the agreement. If it is true, however, Mrs. Wood did not surrender all the letters, for there is evidence that she still has in her possesion certain communications claimed to have been written to her by the Senator. It is said that this agreement whereby Attorney Hummel secured a settlement of $10,000 in Mrs. Wood's favor, of which sum he secured a portion, was made soon after Mrs. Wood's threat to publish, under the title, "Love Letters of a Boss," the letters written to her by Senator Platt.

Mr. O'Flaherty was asked whether or not the bill of complaint in the divorce proceedings contained any provision with reference to allmony. He stated that it reference to alimony. He stated that i did not, but that this question would necessarily come up incidentially in the event of a decree of divorce. The proceeding is now in its initial stages only. Miss Wood, or Mrs. Wood, as it is said she is, is about forty years old. It is alleged that her acquaintance with Senator Platt began on her return from a trip abroad in 1900, and that soon thereafter she secured a position in the government service in Washington through the influence and aid of the Senator. As stated, it is alleged that the couple were stated, it is alleged that the couple wer stated, it is alleged that the couple were married on November 9, 1901, whereas the marriage to Mrs. Janeway was subsequent thereto by nearly two years. It is said that the reason given by Senator Platt for keeping his alleged marriage with Mrs. Wood secret was that the ceremony occurred soon after the death of his first wife, and that he might be criticised by his friends if his marriage were made public at the time. It can be stated authoritatively that the bill filed in the case does not name teen or sixteen co-respondents as alleged nor any indeed, but merely recites the fact of Senator Platt's marriage to Mrs. Janeway as ground for divorce, it not being deemed necessary to drag in any other matter not necessary to the establishment of the claim on which the divorce is sought.

While the firm of O'Flaherty & Fulton decline to disclose their evidence in advance of the trial, they express the belief that they can establish the marriage of Mrs. Wood to Senator Platt at the time alleged, and that the suit is a bona fide one in every detail. fact of Senator Platt's marriage to Mrs.

BOY STRAYED AWAY. Had Spent Change and Was Afraid to Go Home.

Earl Jennings, an eight-year-old boy, firmly believed that he walud be whipped if he returned home Thursday night without the necessary change from his purchases, and accordingly he wandered about the street. About 12:30 oclock yesterday morning he was on the stoop of the home of Mr. W. T. Richardson. The boy told a story of having no parents and being a stranger in the city. Later he said that he lived on Eleventh Street. He was taken to the home of Mrs. Jeter, No.

DOUGLAS THE WORLD $3.50 SHOES FOR MEN BEST IN

Do you wear W. L. Douglas shoes? If not, I believe I can give you good and sufficient reasons why it would pay you to wear them.

I give the wearer the benefit of my thorough and practical knowledge of shoemaking, which has extended over fifty years. I give the wearer the benefit of my exclusive method of tanning the bottom soles which makes them more flexible and gives longer wear than any other sole leather produced in this country. As I am the largest manufacturer of men's fine Hand-Sewed Process shoes in the world, it is necessary for me to purchase leather and other materials in enormous quantities; the benefit of the very low prices I obtain I give to the west lists. the very low prices I obtain I give to the wearer in superior quality the very low prices I obtain I give to the wearer in superior quality over other makes.

I give the wearer the benefit of the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe and every detail of the making is looked after and watched over by these expert men, regardless of time or expense. If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes of time or expense. If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make. I receive thousands of unsolicited testimonials every year, giving the experience of those who, after many years of trial, havefound W. L. Douglas shoes to be the best produced for the price. A package of their original letters will be mailed you free for the asking.

Those are a few of the reasons why I make and sell more Mon's fine flandsowed Process Shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.

Little Son of Mrs. Wells Will Have to Have Leg Amputated-Personals.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1109 Hull Street.

At the meeting of the School Board, held Thursday night, the bids for exavating the land on Eleventh and Bainbridge Streets, where the new High School building of Manchester will be erected, were opened. It was agreed to make necessary improvements for the Bainbridge Street School, especially to the fence which surrounds the building. It is thought now that the actual work on the High School will be commenced about the list of April, and that the building will be completed certainly in time to be occupied when the next session opens in September. The faculty of the school are very desirous of having the building by that time, for they realize the need of it now as never before. At this time the Bainbridge Street School is overcrowded, and some relief must be had. Two as never before, At this time the Bainbridge Street School is overcrowded, and some relief must be had.
